Sign up for our Holiday Luncheon

Mark your calendars for the upcoming LPC Christmas luncheon! The festivities commence at 2:00 pm on Wednesday, December 12 at the Ram's Horn Restaurant on 9 Mile and Jefferson. We will be ordering from their standard menu, and members will pay-as-they-go. Please let us know if you're coming, so we can reserve adequate space.

"Gold Show" at Anton's

Time to get painting for the next 4-Club show at Anton's. "The Gold Show" is the theme, and receiving is Sat., January 16. Art must revolve around the color or theme of Gold. Judge is Keith Raynor. More info: call 586-469-8666 or visit theartcenter.org.

LPC T-shirts available

Have you gotten your LPC t-shirts? They make beautiful Christmas gifts and stocking stuffers. To order, visit the Club's website or contact Debbie Burnham at 586-293-1139.

Dues are due!

LPC dues are due in September for the year. Please make every effort to be on time with your dues, so we can stay on top of our record keeping.

There many perks that come with membership: two annual shows; studio space; entry into group shows at Anton Center; monthly demonstrations and critiques; not to mention the fellowship of like-minded artists.

Please send your check to Membership Chairperson DEBBIE BURNHAM. If you have questions about whether your dues are paid or not, contact Debbie at 586-293-1139 or 586-942-1689, or email her at dburn2000@wideopenwest.com.

Watercolor Demo Wows in November

Local watercolor artist Carol Lachiusa provided a sterling demonstration of a start-to-finish painting at the November LPC general membership meeting. All in attendance picked up valuable tips and techniques.

LPC Fall Show a Good Time for All!

The art from the high schools gets better each year. Kudos to the winners, and their instructors as well.

Our new voting box, enhanced beautifully by 2nd Vice President Tom Sherry, got its first test at the show. We'll know the winner soon!

The 2018 LPC Fall Show and dinner featured some spectacular art, as well as great food, supplied by members, and our usual brand of prize-winning fellowship. The show is on display till the end of November. Stop by the Adult Ed Center and see this great art!
