Club President gives demo on art of Batik

At the final general membership meeting of the season, President Deni Metivier gave a demonstration in the art of Batik, a method of producing colored designs on textiles or paper by dyeing them, having first applied wax to the parts to be left undyed. Thanks, Deni, for an informative and enjoyable demo.

More Spring Show pix:

The LPC Spring Show was marked by great attendance and great art. Kudos to Club members for a wide variety of media and styles that make our Club vibrant and energetic. See first page for list of winners.
