MARCH 2018

Corresponding Sec'y/Editor—Walt Kempksi—email: kempskiw@aol.com

Next General Meeting is Monday, March 4

6:30 p.m. in the Gilstorf Meeting Room at the St. Clair Shores Library, 11 Mile at Jefferson.

The March meeting will feature Stephanie Hazzard, Exhibition Manager of the Anton Art Center, who will provide a critique of member's art work for the upcoming Spring Art Show. Members are encouraged to bring two recent works for discussion. This is a great way to connect with other artists and learn about shows and exhibits in our area. The public is welcome and encouraged to attend. Meeting time is 6:30-8:30 pm. Refreshments will be served after the meeting.

LPC Spring Show is just around the corner!

Now is the time to be preparing your entries for the highlight of the LPC season. The March general membership meeting will feature a critique by Stephanie Hazzard, Exhibition Manager of the Anton Art Center. So get to painting, drawing and/or sculpting, so we can make this the best Spring Show ever!

Also, now's the time to start selling ads for the LPC Spring Show program. We need all members to do their part in the next month and a half.

Ads are very reasonable priced, and the program is professionally prepared. See the ad contract on the back of this newsletter, or contact Walt Kempksi at 586-775-7528 for more contracts and/or samples of last year's program.

Things to consider:

• LPC loses two more valuable members. LPC is saddened to learn of the passing of members Jean VanSullen and Charlie Taylor, husband of former LPC president Joan Taylor. All thoughts and prayers go out to their families. A memorial service is planned for Charlie Taylor on March 24 at 2 pm at the Gaelic League on Michigan Avenue.

• Anton Postcard Show. Anton Center invites artists to create postcard-sized works of art for their mailed-in artwork contest celebrating the center's 50th anniversary. All postcards that meet the guidelines and are received by the postmark date will be displayed in the 2nd level gallery space. One postcard will be selected as Best in Show. Submissions postmark deadline is April 17, 2019. For more information on size of art, contact Anton's Stephanie Hazzard at 586-469-8666.

LPC BOARD ELECTIONS COMING UP! YOUR CLUB NEEDS YOU NOW!

We will soon be nominating for a new slate of Board officers. Now is the time for YOU to step up and do your part. Many of our Board members have been on the Board for many years. It's time to involve some new members with new ideas to run the Club. If you are interested in serving on the Board for YOUR Lakeside Palette Club, talk to any board member.

Advertisers needed for Spring Show Program!

It's not Spring yet, but it's never too early to think about getting ready for our Spring Show. That means we'll be needing ALL MEMBERS to help by selling ads for the Spring program. Rates are extremely reasonable, so please ask your dentists, doctors, tradesmen, or even yourselves to advertise and help add some polish to our Spring Show. Ad contracts will be available at the March general meeting. If you need some sooner, please contact Walt Kempski at 586-775-7528. If we could even get one ad sale per member, we can produce the program without cost to the club, and even make it a money-maker!

Join us at our Studio

The LPC has studio space at the SCS Adult ED center (room 100) every Tuesday from 9 am to 3 pm. Members can work on their art, share ideas with fellow artists and enjoy coffee and snacks. The SCS Adult Education Center is located at 23055 Masonic in St. Clair Shores next to Kennedy Middle School. Office phone is 586-285-8880.

For more information, contact LPC president Deni Metivier, 586-229-7331 or LPC 2nd Vice president, Tom Sherry, 586-294-2889.
