At our February meeting, Deni Metivier will do a presentation of the Palette Club Library materials. This is a description of the collection of years' worth of books, CDs, papers, etc. for use by all members.

Can't be at the meeting in person?? Please join us using the app Zoom!

Our January General Membership meeting was held via Zoom and was very positive even with low attendance. It was a great experience and we encourage all members to give it a try! We need to stay in touch, especially NOW!

All artwork will be loaded on our FB page by the 22nd and all viewers are invited to vote for their favorite between the 22nd and 31st. (Vote for only 1 art work. please.) Artwork will also be loaded for viewing on our website under a new tab.

All participants are invited to join the zoom Awards Party. They will be asked to make a statement about their art or themselves. If they prefer, they can send a short video clip to drharris451@gmail.com with the incentive/motivation behind their work to be aired at the virtual reception.... Or email a statement to be read.
